General Information for Potential Team Saskatchewan Steering Committee Members

Eligibility:

- All Indigenous people over 18 years of age residing in the province of Saskatchewan. You must be in good standing with all 3 partners. (Metis Nation Saskatchewan, Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations, and Sask Sport Inc.)

Committee members should also:

- Have historical and contemporary understanding of societal and economic issues faced by Indigenous people participating in sport, and systems within the Indigenous community to address such issues.
- Have familiarity with the operation of the North American Indigenous Games and the overall sport system inclusive of Indigenous peoples.
- Board/Committee Meetings: There are monthly steering committee meetings and additional Sub-Committee meetings during the year.
- Expenses: All Board/Committee Members are required to pay for their own expenses while conducting Team Saskatchewan Steering Committee business. Reimbursement is provided in accordance with the Committee's financial policies.
- Conflict of Interest Policy (excerpt): Due to the nature of volunteers' responsibilities, it may be, in some cases, necessary to restrict the activities of the individuals serving as volunteers to ensure that a conflict of interest does not or does not appear to exist. Volunteers must not give or appear to give preferential treatment to: i) family members, friends, business associates and/or former business associates. ii) a private or public body such as a municipal council, school board or volunteer organization of which they are or were a member.

(Copies of the TSSC Terms of Reference and the Team Saskatchewan Handbook which contains code of conduct information is available.)
